

Columbus State Community Work Study

Part of the Federal Student Aid program that provides part-time jobs for students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to help pay education and living expenses.

Encourages community service work and work related to the student's course of study.

Benefits for Organizations

- Entry-level jobs provided by you, in support of your mission, at no cost to you. Columbus State currently provides 100% of student wages.
- Students provide positive impact in the community and to those you serve.
- Potential pipeline of future talent - employee or volunteer.

Benefits for Students

- Earn wages to assist with education and living expenses while going to school.
- Gain valuable work experience and skills while also serving the local community.
- Connect with professionals and build a strong network for their future career.

How does it work?

- CSCC and Organization complete annual agreement
- Job posted by CSCC and students apply and organization makes hiring decision
- Columbus State hires student
- Students work part-time at Organization and receive pay from Columbus State's Federal Work Study funding

COLUMBUS STATE
STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

cscc.edu/careers
studentemployment@cscc.edu